Sabrina Mapp

sabrina.mapp@gmail.com | 301.332.4918 | LinkedIn

HIGHLIGHTS OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Administer third-party software applications including designing and conducting training programs and managing users.
- Work with a variety of stakeholders.
- Ability to quickly learn new skills and work in a variety of technical environments.

CAREER EXPERIENCE

Georgetown University Law Center, Washington, DC   2007 – present
Senior Web Developer/Distributed Authoring Manager

- Design and conduct training program for WordPress CMS, CommonSpot CMS and Legal Server Case Management System. This includes creating training documents and conducting regular training sessions for groups of users.
- Administer user accounts for Content Management Systems, Legal Server and Google Analytics.
- Implement Legal Server Customizations for Law Center Clinical Programs.
- Achieve and Maintain WCAG 2.0 and 508 compliance on web pages and documents.
- Manage temporary employees brought in to assist with website accessibility.
- Use CSS and HTML5 Technologies to create mobile-friendly pages.
- Create web-based applications using Cold Fusion and SQL Server.
- Troubleshoot issues with third party applications and work with vendors to resolve.
- Gather user requirements for software and web applications.
- Evaluate third-party software applications and provide recommendations to executive leadership.

Georgetown University Law Center, Washington, DC   2005 – 2007
Web Developer

- Use Cold Fusion and SQL Server to develop database-driven applications.
- Maintain and enhance existing webpages.
- Work with clients and users to design and program new departmental sites.
- Manage ftp and Adobe Contribute accounts for users who maintain departmental websites.
- Train users to use Adobe Contribute to maintain websites.

RMCI, Washington, DC   2003 – 2005
Web Developer

- Designed and developed database-driven applications for the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) Internet and intranet sites using Cold Fusion.
- Updated existing webpages and transfer pages to various UI designs template/look.
- Converted all programmed pages to meet 508-compliance, using 508 coding standards and InFocus software for validation.
- Created PDF documents and made them accessible using InFocus software.

Sabrina Mapp

sabrina.mapp@gmail.com | 301.332.4918 | LinkedIn

CGS Solutions, Lanham, MD   2002 – 2003
Web Developer
- Developed database-driven applications for clients and internal projects using Cold Fusion; SQL; JavaScript; and HTML.
- Developed administration sections for websites which allow clients to administer various sections of the website (such as job opportunities, events calendars, news, etc.).
- Hard-coded webpages in HTML and JavaScript
- Analyzed business requirements and created time and cost estimates for client projects.

National Geographic Society, Washington, DC   1999 – 2002
Web Programmer
- Created Perl scripts to dynamically generate a webpage based on user input and values from a spreadsheet (used to generate product frame on the Map Machine).
- Used Cascading Style Sheets (CSS) to template page styles.
- Programmed various sections of the National Geographic website including the Traveler Magazine. Redesigned the Geography Action feature.
- Performed maintenance on various National Geographic web sites.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science Degree in Computer Science (Magna Cum Laude)
University of Maryland Eastern Shore, Princess Anne, Maryland